

Terras de Tavares 2002

João Tavares Wines

Dão, Portugal

Grapes: Jaen (65%), Touriga Nacional (35%)

Profile: Earthy, light red fruit, a bit on the dried side. A little potpourri and forest floor round out the nose. Quite tannic as compared to the lighter and fresher nose, reminiscent of Nebbiolo. An incredibly difficult year, the wine was just released in 2019.

Pairing: Lamb, Venison, Truffles, Boudin Noir, Ribeye, Beet Risotto

Alc: 12.5%

Sulfur: 49mg/L - 13mg/L free

Vineyard Age: 35-70 years

Production Size: 15,000 bottles

Terras de Tavares 2002

João Tavares Wines

Dão, Portugal

Grapes: Jaen (65%), Touriga Nacional (35%)

Profile: Earthy, light red fruit, a bit on the dried side. A little potpourri and forest floor round out the nose. Quite tannic as compared to the lighter and fresher nose, reminiscent of Nebbiolo. An incredibly difficult year, the wine was just released in 2019.

Pairing: Lamb, Venison, Truffles, Boudin Noir, Ribeye, Beet Risotto

Alc: 12.5%

Sulfur: 49mg/L - 13mg/L free

Vineyard Age: 35-70 years

Production Size: 15,000 bottles

